

THE NRICH TIMES

New figures show favourite tourist destinations

Newly released figures from the CAA show the country's top destinations in 2017. Europe tops the list, with Australia and New Zealand trailing at the bottom.

When asked about this by the NRICH Times, the Australian ambassador explained that their country was putting extra resources into supporting tourism. Australia has so many beautiful places to visit, we recommend it to everyone.

Figure 2: Popularity of destinations (by continent) in 2017

← Figure 1

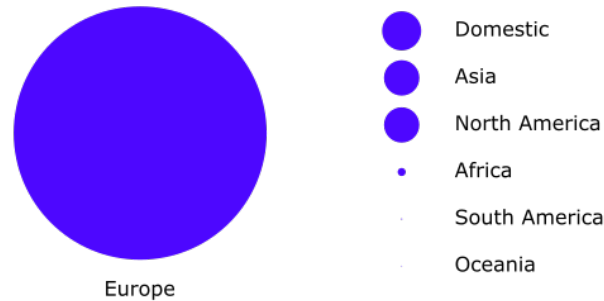

Figure 3: Destinations of flights from London in 2017

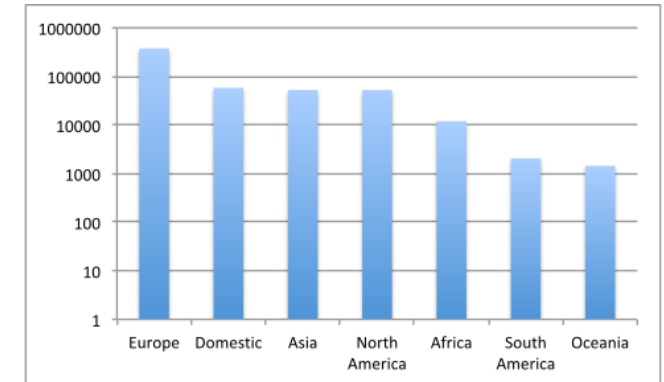

Figure 4: Number of flights from London airports in 2017

| Continent | Total flights | Proportion |
|---------------|---------------|------------|
| Europe | 374496 | 67.8% |
| Domestic | 57866 | 10.5% |
| Asia | 52336 | 9.5% |
| North America | 52259 | 9.5% |
| Africa | 11925 | 2.2% |
| South America | 2059 | 0.4% |
| Oceania | 1442 | 0.3% |

The original data