Arithmagons

Can you understand how the values of the circles determine the value of the squares?

Can you fill in the circles irrespective of what is in the squares?

Describe and explain what you have discovered.